

LEFTY O'DOUL'S

Margarita Mix

The Man, the Margarita Mix

Baseball legend Lefty O'Doul enjoyed vacationing with his celebrity entourage in Mexico. There, he experienced beautiful beaches while sipping delicious margaritas. After each trip, he would return home and try to recreate that wonderful tasty margarita he had enjoyed so much. After many failed attempts, Lefty returned to Mexico and charmed the locals, who shared with him the key to margarita making: lime.

Blended together with pure cane sugar, local orange and fresh lemon juice – muy bueno! – the legendary drink was born.

Once Lefty began importing these secret ingredients, the world was introduced to a new taste sensation: the Lefty O'Doul's Authentic Key Lime Margarita. The recipe has been passed down through generations of bartenders and the ingredients are still imported and blended to his specifications.
